Remember the Silver Social at the Presbyterian church Friday evening November 19.

The Misses Grant have received the information of the death of their cousin young Mr. Maloney, of Craig City, Virginia.

The "Deacon" was well rendered last Friday night and compliments are in order for Miss Nell Johnson and all those who took part.

Circuit court will convene Monday. There are fifty five appearance suits, about twenty new commonwealth cases and three old murder trials.

Bird hunters who went out Monday say that it was too warm and dry for their dogs to do good work, although many birds were killed all through the county.

The Ladies of the Presbyterian church will have an exchange at Misses Miller & Ziegler's millinery store, on Wednesday, November 24, beginning at ten o'clock.

J. M. Farra received about 450 cigars to be used by the Lancaster and Garrard County Development Association. Five dollars will be awarded to the party sending in the best one.

In order that the RECORD force may give thanks for what little they have, we will go to press on Wednesday of next week. Correspondents will please have their letters in this office by Monday night.

Garrard county produces 6,000,000 pounds of tobacco from about 6,000 acres and 1,000,000 pounds of hemp from about 1,000 acres. These two crops will bring over $1,000,000 to Garrard county. The corn crop this year is a bumper.

Advertising Pays.

A lady sent an ad to the RECORD, for the sale of a handsome home and the sale was made before the issue was run off.

John Anderson advertised for a lost sow, she came home with 10 pigs then he advertised the sow and pigs for sale. As soon as Booth Thompson saw the ad he went and bought them for $35.00. John asked us to notify the readers of the RECORD that she has been sold, as he is still bothered with many buyers.

All are invited to the Silver Social at the Presbyterian church Friday evening, 7:30, November 19.

The bazaar of the Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church will be held at Joseph's store on Saturday Dec. 11, 11-19-41.

Press Men to Meet.

The midwinter meeting of the Kentucky Press Association will be held Lexington, December 28 and 29. D. R. Bomar, of Versailles, E. E. Shinnick, of Shelbyville, and Charles W. Metcalfe, of Pineville, were appointed a committee on program and arrangements.

Change of Time.

Number 71, mixed train south, arrives at Lancaster now at 9:20 a. m. and number 28, mail train North arrives at 11:14 a. m., fifteen minutes earlier than heretofore.

Post Master West says that all mail should be deposited at least 30 minutes before the time for arrival of train.

Sales of Property.

Hughes & Swinebroad report the following sales just made by them. Elizabeth Joseph to Alex Walker, residence on Lexington street for $1,000; M. L. and W. A. Beasley to R. S. Brown, residence on Water street for $3,000; J. A. Bratton to Albert Huffman 80 acres of land on Sugar Creek at $45 per acre.

Tobacco Warehouse.

It is believed that while the Burley Tobacco Society is locating warehouses, to take care of tobacco, they would do well to consider Lancaster, as Garrard county raises about 6,000,000 pounds being in excess of some adjoining counties. They could then be able to put this county in the pool and thereby control our immense crop, giving the growers a convenient place to deliver their tobacco. Suitable premises, for the business, are available and the matter should be taken up at once.

To Confederate Veterans.

The following invitations are out to the Confederate soldiers of Garrard county:

"Out of compliment to Judge M. C. Sauley, of Stanford, and the Confederate soldiers now living in Garrard county, I will give a dinner at the Kengarian Hotel in Lancaster on Saturday, November 20th, 1909, at one o'clock p. m. I cordially invite you to be my guest on that occasion. Come and let us have a good time together. Very truly,
T. B. Robinson."

An Announcement Party.

Mrs. Joe E. Robinson entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Carrie Curry, at which time the engagement of Miss Curry to Mr. John Anderson, of Washington, D. C., was announced, the wedding to take place on Wednesday, December the eighth. The Tuesday Afternoon Card Club was invited to meet her at two o'clock. The table cards were in the shape of pad locks with cupid's hearts and quotations upon them, and upon the inside was written the announcement.

At four o'clock a few of the intimate friends of Miss Curry were received. The decorations were in green and white. A delightful menu was served by Benedict, of Louisville, the ice being in the shape of wedding slippers with green bows. Toasts were responded to and all showered good wishes upon the bride-elect.

The afternoon was one of unusual interest to the intimate friends of Miss Curry and a still wider circle regrets to see her leave, but John is one of our boys and we say a great deal for him when we say he is well worthy of the girl he will win.

Sugar Cured Pork.

This recipe has been used for years in Virginia and is thoroughly reliable. To sugar cure hams and shoulders: For every 80 pounds of ham or shoulders use 3 ounces saltpeter, 7 ounces brown sugar, 1 pint fine salt. Mix all three thoroughly and rub on outside of meat same day it is butchered. Lay meat on inclined surface for 24 hours to drain, where it cannot freeze. Then rub 2 quarts of salt on the 80 pounds. Let it lie for 14 days on inclined surface, so that melting brine will not stand on meat. Hang up and dry or smoke, then pack for the summer. A board or swinging shelf in the cellar, with one end raised and a tub or bucket to catch the drip, is the best place to keep the meat in the north. In this climate it will not freeze in the smoke house. Perhaps as good a way as any to keep it over the summer is to put each piece in a flour sack, or a bag made for the purpose, and stuff all around the meat carefully with clean hay or straw, so that the meat in no place touches the bad. This will keep any inquisitive fly from reaching the meat, and also supplies ventilation and prevents molding.

Sugar cured bacon can be prepared in the same way as hams and shoulders, by using about 90 pounds of side meat, cut in strips, for the same amount of saltpeter, sugar and salt. Bacon prepared in this way is superior to the expensive sugar cured breakfast bacon on the market.—Indiana Farmer.

RELIGIOUS.

The prayer meeting for the members of the Christian church which was to have been held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Emma P. Grant was postponed on account of Elder F. M. Tindler's meetings continuing at Herring's school-house.

Elder F. M. Tindler reports that he is having a pleasant and successful meeting at Herring's School House.

Life.

Man comes into the world without his consent and leaves it against his will. During his stay on earth his time is spent in one continuous round of contraries and misunderstandings. In his infancy he is an angel; in his boyhood, he is a devil; in his manhood, he is everything from a lizard up; in his duties, he is a fool. If he raises a family, he is a chump; if he raises a check, he is a thief; if he raises the law raises him; if he is a poor man, he is a poor manager and has no sense; if he is rich, he is dishonest, but considered smart. If he is in politics, he is a grifter and a crook; if he is out of politics, you can't place him, as he is "an undesirable citizen"; if he gives to church, he is a hypocrite; if he stays away from church, he is a sinner, if he donates to foreign missions, he does it for a show, if he doesn't, he is stingy and a "tightwad." If he deals with home merchants he is a winner, if he doesn't he is a loser. When he first comes into the world, everybody wants to kiss him—before he goes out, they all want to kick him. If he dies young, there was a great future before him; if he lives to a ripe old age, he is in the way only living to save funeral expenses. So life is a young proposition after all. Brownsville, Pa.—Ex.

Bali-Campbell.

The wedding of Miss Ellen Mae Ball and Mr. Ernest Bohon Campbell was solemnized in Louisville on Tuesday.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Joanna Ball, of this city, and a sister of Mr. Wm. Ball, one of Lancaster's best citizens. She is a most attractive young lady, with unusual musical talent, and enjoys a large friendship in this community.

The groom is a popular jeweler in Stanford Ky, and we hear he is a fine business man. We wish to congratulate him on having won such an elegant lady and wish them much success through life.

Development Association.

On Tuesday night, although the rain fell in torrents, the first regular meeting of the Lancaster & Garrard County Development Association was held in the Odd Fellows lodge room, with about forty members present, all of whom were enthusiastic over the new work which is before us.

The minutes of the organization meeting were read and adopted, after which the chairmen of the various committees were called upon to name their committeemen.

A motion was made and carried for each member present to secure five new members by the next meeting night, which is Dec. 7th, which they agreed to do. This will bring our membership up to 300.

After a motion to give the Secretary an assistant, a committee was named to investigate the expense of an office and a stenographer for the association.

Uncle Jim Anderson.

Jim Anderson, colored, one of the most highly respected colored persons in the county, died last Friday morning after a lingering illness of tuberculosis. The burial took place in the Lancaster colored cemetery Sunday afternoon, before an immense crowd of his white and colored friends.

"Uncle Jim" had been janitor at the Graded School for 23 years and the children from the beginning of his work there to the time he resigned, a few weeks ago, loved and respected him for his many kindnesses to them, and tried to show their appreciation by furnishing immense floral designs for the funeral.

It will be many years before "Uncle Jim's" place is filled.

From A Man Who Knows.

The following interesting letter, from a man who knows, was received by John M. Farra, President of the Lancaster and Garrard County Development Association.

New York, Nov. 8, 09.

John M. Farra,
Lancaster, Ky.

Friend John:—

I was exceedingly glad to read in the CENTRAL RECORD that the Citizens of Lancaster and Garrard county had organized a Development Association. This being my home town and county I shall always feel a deep interest in the welfare of the town and county.

The people stood by me nobly in my mercantile career in Lancaster, they helped me to build a commercial enterprise that I was proud of and I shall always remember them kindly for their gracious patronage, there are no better, or more hospitable people on earth than Lancaster and Garrard people, and I love them with all my heart.

I believe with the proper interest and with a united effort on the part of the citizens much can be accomplished. You have many things that should attract and draw people to the town and county. In fact your resources are great and you should let the world know about them. There are many ways of advertising and telling the world about the good things you have. But advertise! you must. I am a great believer in advertising, when you have a good thing let the people know about it and they will come to see you. I know they will come, for I have tried it.

Lancaster and Garrard county people should stand by and patronize home industries, this is the only way to build up the town and county. The business man, bankers, merchants and manufacturers should stand together and advocate honest and fair competition and not be afraid to spend a few dollars in advertising their wares and merchandise to the consuming and purchasing public. Advertising is not an expense, it is an investment if properly handled.

If the people will work and pull together they can accomplish much. "In Union there is strength." I trust you will be successful in accomplishing great results for Lancaster and Garrard county, and for the slogan for the Lancaster and Garrard County Development Association I suggest, Progress, Publicity, Home patronage, for Lancaster and Garrard County Industries.

I am Sincerely yours,
J. M. Logan.
